GENERAL ORDER
OVERDUE ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE
AMENDED December 5, 2003
AMENDED August 14, 2006

---

UPON THE COURT'S OWN MOTION and in the interest of judicial economy:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

When the payment of any fine, fee, or restitution becomes more than 30 days overdue the court will send the defendant an overdue letter notifying that if payment is not received within 10 days and every 30 days thereafter the case will be referred to the Office of State Debt Collection.

When the payment of any fine, fee, or restitution becomes more than 90 days overdue the case will be referred to the Office of State Debt Collection.

Any case with a balance of $50 or less may, with Judicial approval, have the balance suspended.

The collections clerk may hold a case for local collections upon good cause.

Dated this 14 day of Aug 2006
